

Thank you for your interest in becoming a Killeen Branch NAACP member!

Your NAACP membership is more than a contribution. You are joining a TEAM that has been on the forefront of civil and human rights battles for more than one hundred years.

Please complete the form and enter the information requested. Select the type of membership you wish to have and make your check or money order payable to the Killeen NAACP. All regular annual memberships require payment in full. Installment plan payments can be initiated for life memberships. For more information about membership, please call Gladys Peterson, Membership Chair, at 254-338-3663.

Your membership entitles you to the following:

1. Membership to the National organization
2. Membership in the local Unit (Killeen Branch)
3. Subscription to the CRISIS magazine
4. Voting rights at Killeen Branch NAACP meetings
5. Opportunity to fully participate in Killeen Branch activities including running for office, serving on committees, providing input and feedback on strategic plans and volunteering to work on projects
